DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 21-35, drawn to a bodily fluid sampling apparatus, classified in class 606, subclass 183.
- II. Claims 36-51, drawn to a process of obtaining and testing a bodily fluid, classified in class 600, subclass 584.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as broadly as structurally claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process including (a) puncturing plastics and/or textiles and/or (b) tenderizing meat and/or (c) and/or etching metal.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 3736

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct sets of species:

- Set I:
 - Species A: embodiment drawn to Figure 7A,
 - Species B: embodiment drawn to Figure 7B,
 - Species C: embodiment drawn to Figure 7C, and
 - Species D: embodiment drawn to Figure 7D.

6. The species are independent or distinct because they are substantially dissimilar and structurally divergent means for configuring a lancet and cap combination.

- Set II:
 - Species E: embodiment drawn to Figures 9A and 9C and
 - Species F: embodiment drawn to Figures 9B and 9D.

7. The species are independent or distinct because they are substantially dissimilar and structurally divergent means for configuring a test strip.

- Set III:
 - Species G: embodiment drawn to Figure 16A,
 - Species H: embodiment drawn to Figure 16B,
 - Species I: embodiment drawn to Figure 17A,
 - Species J: embodiment drawn to Figure 17B, and
 - Species K: embodiment drawn to Figure 18.

Art Unit: 3736

8. The species are independent or distinct because they are substantially dissimilar and structurally divergent means for configuring a test strip moving mechanism.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from each set for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

9. A telephone call was made to Andrew Smith on 12/8/06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

Art Unit: 3736

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
